Join us today on another new day trip to the state of Vermont. Our first stop will be at the Vermont Welcome Center in Brattleboro for the restrooms and a coffee and snack from the tables outside (subject to change).

We then drive west along Vermont Route 9 (also known as the Molly Stark Trail) over to Bennington, Vermont, in the western part of the state.

Our next stop will be at the Bennington Museum for a self guided tour. The museum is home to the largest collection of Grandma Moses paintings in the world. The museum also features art, history, and innovation from early Vermont to the present day in quintessential New England.

We then head off to the Publyk House for our included lunch which will consist of the salad bar and a hot lunch buffet featuring sliced turkey breast with herbed stuffing and cranberry and baked New England cod with cheddar and cracker crumb crust. Whipped Yukon gold potatoes and seasonal vegetable medley finish our lunch. Seasonal fruit crisp and coffee and tea are also included. While enjoying lunch, bask in the million dollar view of the beautiful mountains of Southern Vermont. Next, continue to the Apple Barn where we will have a casual narrated bus ride to the top of their 300 acre apple orchard to view the most spectacular scenery of southern Vermont. We will also make a stop for pictures. Returning to the store, we will enjoy a fresh-baked apple cider donut and your choice of cold or hot cider or coffee. Tour is weather permitting. After visiting the Apple Barn, we begin our journey home. Thank you for traveling with us today!
