We are off to the witch city "Salem" for another new tour. On arrival today you will have time to browse the shops along the wharf and maybe grab a cup of coffee before meeting at the drop-off location for a short ride to lunch at the Historic Hawthorne Hotel dating back to 1925.

Lunch will start with a Caesar salad and entrée choice of charbroiled chicken breast with grilled onions and apple corn relish or filet of sole with crabmeat stuffing and sweet red pepper sauce. Also included is potato, seasonal vegetable, rolls and butter, coffee and tea. Dessert will be cheesecake with fruit sauce. Please make your meal selection below. A vegetarian option is also available.

After lunch, it's a short ride to the pier to board the 45-foot motor catamaran Endeavour for our two-hour private tour of Salem Sound as we have chartered the boat. There is lots to see in the waters of Salem Sound which is protected from the Atlantic Ocean by a chain of barrier islands. One of those is Misery Island, a stunning natural park owned by the Trustees of Reservations. We will have a 30-minute stop here, and on the island you can walk the wide, well-maintained trails or comb the beach for sea glass. Beer, wine or soft drinks are available on the boat for purchase.

After our cruise, we will make our way home with maybe a surprise stop along with way, time permitting.

Walking info: a lot of walking prior to lunch visiting the shops, in and out of the restaurant, and on and off the boat
