Our journey today takes us westward and back to the Mac Haydn Theatre for the first time in two years. (Where we saw Mama Mia.)

We will make a rest stop en route before arriving at our first stop of the day, Furnace Brook Winery at Hilltop Orchards in Richmond, Mass. You can enjoy the hilltop views or shop the farm winery store for home preserves, artisan cheeses, wine, and fresh-baked goods, including their famous apple cider donuts. You have the option of a wine tasting on your own.

We continue to our lunch stop at the Winding Brook Country Club located in Valatie, NY, nestled between the Berkshire and Catskill Mountains. Winding Brook is considered one of the Hudson Valley's most serene semi-private golf courses.

For our late lunch today, the staff will serve us salad, rolls, and butter, and then we will partake of a lunch buffet to include a fruit platter, pasta, potato, beef, chicken and seasoned vegetables. (Menu subject to change.) Dessert, coffee and tea will complete the meal. Cash bar available.

Next up is the highlight of the day, 42nd Street, at the Mac Haydn Theatre in Chatham, NY. The Mac Haydn is an intimate 350-seat theater in the round. 42nd Street is based on the novel by Bradford Ropes and the subsequent 1933 Hollywood film adaptation. The backstage musical show focuses on the efforts of famed dictatorial Great White Way director Julian Marsh to mount a successful stage production of a musical extravaganza at the height of the Great Depression. We depart for home after the show. Won't you join us?
