See one of the magnificent Newport Mansions, the Breakers, decorated for the holiday. This was the summer home of Cornelius Vanderbilt II and is the grandest of all the Newport summer “cottages.”

The Breakers has never been surpassed and is a magnificent property of the grandest scale. You will have a self-guided tour of the home, which is decorated for the holidays.

Lunch today will be at Johnny’s at Wyndham Newport. We will start off with soup as an appetizer and choice of one of the following entrees: sauteed breast of chicken with tarragon mustard cream sauce or baked stuff scrod. A vegetarian option is also available. Included with lunch will be chef’s choice for potato and vegetable. We conclude lunch with an ice cream sundae and coffee or tea.

We are off to La Salette Shrine in Attleboro for Father Pat’s Christmas concert and the Christmas Lights festival. You will then have time to browse the gift shop or grab a snack for later from their cafeteria. You will want to be outside for the WOW factor when the lights are turned on approximately 4:45PM (subject to change). You will have time to walk around viewing the lights before we depart for home at 5:45pm.
