TRIP DETAILS

We are heading back to Lake Sunapee for the first time since 2019.

Our first stop will be at Mount Sunapee Resort for the 91st annual Craftsman's Fair. This is the League of New Hampshire Craftsmen's signature event. They expect 160 booths plus demonstrations and workshops. We will have 2½ hours to enjoy the fair. Since we are having a late lunch, you may want to have something while we are here.

From here it is a short ride over to the town dock at Sunapee Harbor, NH. We have chartered the MV Lake Queen for a two-hour private cruise around Lake Sunapee. Sunapee is the fifth largest lake located entirely in New Hampshire and contains eleven islands. While we are cruising the lake, we will enjoy a buffet lunch. Our buffet will start off with a garden salad and artisan rolls and butter followed by baked stuffed chicken, macaroni and cheese, scalloped potatoes and roasted native vegetables. Lunch concludes with assorted gourmet cakes, soft drinks, coffee, and tea. Menu is subject to change. Our cruise also features a cash bar. (Cash bar tax and gratuity are not included in your trip price.)
