TRIP DETAILS

Calling all train buffs and everyone else! We are off to Portland by the Downeaster train for the first time in eight years.

We will arrive at the Haverhill, MA, train station where we will board Amtrak's Downeaster for our 1 hour and 45 minute ride to Portland. Each train car has a restroom, and there is a dining café car with coffee, snacks, light meals, and soft drinks available for purchase. Along the Downeaster route, we will pass through historic, quaint, colonial towns and beautiful beaches.

While we are on the train, our motorcoach will go ahead and meet us at the Portland station upon our arrival.

It is a short journey to our favorite restaurant, the Muddy Rudder, located in Yarmouth, Maine. Our lunch today will begin with a Caesar salad and your choice of:

Baked haddock – lobster sherry cream sauce, mashed potato, and vegetable,

Pot roast – jus gravy, mashed potato, and vegetable

Chicken piccata – lemon caper butter sauce, mashed potato, and vegetable.

Please make your selection below. Lunch concludes with blueberry apple crisp and coffee or tea. After lunch we will have time for browsing the stores in the Old Port of Portland before heading for home.
